To everyone who gave or shared: thank you.

On 3 December we reached our goal. Six months of rent are paid, Samir is working again with his own tools, and Rawan is following her nursing course on a laptop instead of a shared phone.

Huda asked me to pass on her words: “May God reward you all. We sleep well again.”

I will post a final update with all the receipts on 20 December.

With gratitude,
Mariam